

MARKO POLO (1254. – 1324.)

Traveller, explorer, travel writer, royal emissary. He was the first European who in his book „Milion“ described China and other Asiatic countries and gave information about Tibet and Japan. He can be considered the carrier of the big discoveries: silk, paper bank-notes, pepper, pasta and porcelain are just a part of what became innovations in Europe upon his return from the east.

马可·波罗 (1254—1324—)

世界旅游者、探险者、游记作家、皇家使者。他是第一个在自己的书中大量的介绍了中国和其他亚洲国家并添加了有关西藏和日本资料的欧洲人。他可以被认为是探索新地域的创始人。丝绸、钞票、胡椒、面食和瓷器仅仅是他从东方带回欧洲的一小部分。

MARCO POLO (1254. – 1324.)

Svjetski putnik, istraživač, putopisac, carski emisar. On je prvi euroljanin koji je kroz svoju knjigu Milion opisao Kinu i druge azijske zemlje i obavijestio o Tibetu i Japanu, te ga se može smatrati začetnikom velikih geografskih otkrića. Svila, papirnata novčanica, papar, tjestenina i porculan samo je mali dio onog što je sa njegovim povratkom u Europu postalo novina starog kontinenta.
